Wanted: Music, PE, and Art Teachers!

Do you have exemplary teachers in the music, the physical education, and/or the art areas who would be willing to be leaders in reviewing and working with the new standards in these areas?

The essential questions that will be addressed through this work:

- ◆ What are the most important learnings for students in these curriculum areas?
- ◆ What are the qualities of exemplary physical education, music, and/or art standards?
- ◆ What do the new national standards for physical education, music, and art mean?
- ◆ What are the new national standards saying to teachers and students?
- ◆ Why are we teaching physical education, music, and art in our schools?
- ◆ What are the differences between the past national standards and the new national standards?
(The past National Standards for these areas were developed during 2010 or 2011. The new National Standards for these areas were developed during 2014 or 2015.)

What: Development of Revised Model Curriculums for PE, Music, and Art

When: One day of face-to-face work with subject-area team in late September or early October

One day of final work of face-to-face work with team in March

Where: Central location for team meetings

How: Documents of national standards/research in the areas will be provided for team members to review. Dialogue will take place among members at the team meetings as well as collaborating on line. Final document will be completed by April 1, 2016. (Our goal is to have around 5-6 teachers representing all levels on each curriculum team.)
