

Micro-credentials provide

- Job-embedded learning
- Practical application
- Individual choice
- Team collaboration
- Best practices
- Evidence of competency

See a preview of Writing a Micro-credential in this 25 minute video, as well as view the developer notes for writing a micro-credential.

MISIC's catalog of micro-credentials is always evolving. We're eager to include you in our pool of writers and to add your quality MCs to our catalog to share with educators. Stipends are available for additional MC development.

WRITING MICRO-CREDENTIALS WORKSHOP

Join us for a workshop designed to provide flexibility, information, and feedback to develop high quality professional learning that meets the needs of today's educators.

Whole group sessions will be held on Wednesdays on Zoom.

June 2 4:00-5:00 Introduction & Focus on Designing the Task

June 9 1:30-3:00 Task Feedback & Focus on Creating Success Criteria & Submission Guidelines

June 16 1:30-3:00 Success Criteria, Submission Guidelines Feedback & Focus on Overview, Preparing for the Task, Pathways and Additional Tools

June 23 1:30-3:00 Overview, Preparing for the Task, Pathways and Additional Tools Feedback

- All sessions will be recorded and available to participants.
- Participants will be encouraged to collaborate, either at a mutual site or online.
- Facilitators will be available for individual coaching sessions as needed.

COST:

The workshop is FREE.

Licensure renewal credit is available for $35 upon successful completion of a micro-credential by September 1, 2021.

Register here by Tuesday, June 1.

For more information or to answer any questions, please contact Jamie at 515-460-0362 or jamie@misiciowa.org

See MISIC's website to learn more about the power and variety of micro-credentials.