

Are YOU interested in joining a hybrid book study with other instructional coaches, teachers, and/or other leaders?

As leaders, you design and facilitate professional learning activities for your staff, colleagues, and others. Now, it's your opportunity to participate in a hybrid book study of The Coaching Habit: Say Less, Ask More, and Change The Way You Lead Forever specifically designed for YOU!

With much success last spring and this summer with this book study, The MISIC team will again offer a book study on The Coaching Habit: Say Less, Ask More, and Change the Way you Lead Forever by Michael Bungay Stanier. No matter which coaching model you use, the ideas and skills presented in this book will support your work. You will read and reflect with a partner and work with the whole group during our seven 70-minute sessions together. We will unpack the seven essential coaching questions to demonstrate how--by saying less and asking more--you can develop coaching methods that produce great results.

- Get straight to the point in any conversation with The Kickstart Question
- Stay on track during any interaction with The Awe Question
- Save hours of time for yourself with The Lazy Question, and hours of time for others with The Strategic Question
- Get to the heart of any interpersonal or external challenge with The Focus Question and The Foundation Question
- Finally ensure others find your coaching as beneficial as you do with The Learning Question
